

V.A. MEDICAL CENTER UST REPLACEMENT ALTOONA, PA

Tierra Group provided environmental engineering and management services to facilitate the removal and replacement of underground storage tanks (USTs) at the Veterans Affairs Medical Center in Altoona, PA.

Tierra performed the following activities:

- Preliminary geotechnical site evaluation
- Soil sampling and contamination assessment
- Management of UST system removal operations

- Facilitation of selection process for choosing replacement fuel storage system components
- Storage tank system replacement scheduling
- Supervision of new system installation

- Securing agency approval from Pennsylvania DEP
- Site restoration including concrete pavement and secured perimeter fence
- Completion of as-builts and system performance tests

